Risks

The ILP sub-fund is not listed on the Singapore Exchange and you can redeem only on Business Days through Singapore Life Ltd. In respect of Singapore investors, there is no secondary market for the ILP sub-fund.

Please refer to the section “Risk Factors” in the Neuberger Berman Singapore Prospectus for a description of the risk factors associated with investing in the Underlying Fund. The following are risks specific to the Underlying Fund:

Equity Securities Risk

Equity securities represent ownership interests in a company or corporation, and include common stock, preferred stock and warrants and other rights to acquire such instruments. Investment in equity securities in general are subject to market risks that may cause their prices to fluctuate over time. The value of convertible equity securities is also affected by prevailing interest rates, the credit quality of the issuer and any call provisions. Fluctuations in the value of equity securities in which the Underlying Fund invests would cause the net asset value of the Underlying Fund to fluctuate.

Sustainable Investment Style Risk

The application of ESG criteria could affect the Underlying Fund’s exposure and could impact the Underlying Fund’s investment performance. Information used to evaluate the application of ESG factors may not be readily available, complete or accurate, which could negatively impact the Underlying Fund’s performance or create additional risk.

Emerging Market Economies Risk

Investing in emerging markets may involve heightened risks (some of which could be significant) such as greater social, economic and political uncertainty, and periods of extreme volatility. Separately, bid and offer spreads of the price of securities may be significant and accordingly, the Underlying Fund may incur significant trading costs.

Exchange rate risks

If the Base Currency of the Underlying Fund is US Dollars or Euros or CNY and not Singapore Dollars. If your reference currency is Singapore Dollars, you will therefore be exposed to exchange rate risks. Further information on exchange rate risks associated with an investment into the Underlying Fund is set out in the Underlying Fund’s Irish Prospectus under the section headed “Investment Risks” under the sub-headings “Currency Risk” and “Share Class Currency Designation Risk”. Information on how the Manager and Sub-Investment Managers may hedge the currency exchange risks is also set out in the Irish Prospectus under the section headed “Portfolio Investment Techniques”.

Epidemics, Pandemics, Outbreaks of Disease and Public Health Issues

The activities of the Company, the Manager and the Sub-Investment Managers, their respective operations and the Company’s investments could be adversely affected by outbreaks of disease, epidemics and public health issues either regionally or globally, despite effective business continuity plans being in place. Any major public health issue could affect individual issuers or related groups of issuers, which would be reasonably likely to adversely affect the business, financial condition and operations of the Company, the Manager and the Sub-Investment Managers. The ability of the Manager and Sub-Investment Managers and their service providers to operate and implement the Underlying Funds’ investment strategies and objectives may also be affected as a result of any outbreak or disease epidemics, which can ultimately have an adverse impact on the Company’s value. Further information on risks associated with epidemics, pandemics, outbreaks of diseases and public health issues is set out in the Underlying Fund’s Irish Prospectus under the section headed “Investment Risks” under the sub-heading “Epidemics, Pandemics, Outbreaks of Disease and Public Health Issues”.

The above should not be considered to be an exhaustive list of the risks which you should consider before investing into the Underlying Fund. You should be aware that an investment in the Underlying Fund may be exposed to other risks of an exceptional nature from time to time.
