SUB-FUND SUITABILITY

WHO IS THE SUB-FUND SUITABLE FOR?

The ILP sub-fund is only suitable for investors who:

- seek capital appreciation with no need for income;
- seek exposure to shares of Japan’s equity markets

In addition, the Fund is only suitable for investors who are able to accept the product specific risks of the Fund.

Further information

Refer to paragraph 6.1 of the Underlying Fund’s Prospectus for further information on sub-fund suitability.

KEY FEATURES OF THE SUB-FUND

WHAT ARE YOU INVESTING IN?

- You are investing in a sub-fund of Goldman Sachs Funds SICAV (the “Fund”)
- The Fund is an open-ended investment company with variable capital incorporated in Luxembourg and its home regulator is the Commission de Surveillance du Secteur Financier (“CSSF”).
- Accumulating shares do not pay dividends whereas distributing shares may pay dividends.

Refer to paragraph 1, 2 and 5 of the Singapore Prospectus for further information on features of the sub-fund.

Investment Strategy

- The Underlying Fund will mostly hold shares or similar instruments relating to Japanese companies. Such companies are either based in or earn most of their profits or revenues from Japan. The Underlying Fund may also invest in companies which are based anywhere in the world. The Underlying Fund will typically invest in 60-120 companies.
- As part of its investment process, the Investment Adviser implements a multi-faceted approach to Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) considerations (“ESG Criteria”) into its fundamental investment process. Further details of the ESG

Refer to paragraph 5 of the Underlying Fund’s Singapore Prospectus for further information on the investment strategy of the sub-fund.

¹ For ILP sub-fund that feed 100% into an underlying CIS fund, some of the information provided below could be similar to the underlying CIS fund.

² In order for units in the ILP sub-fund to be classified as Excluded Investment Products, the investment objectives and investment focus of the ILP sub-fund, and investment approach of the manager have to be stated in the product summary:

(a) to invest only in deposits or other Excluded Investment Products; and

(b) not to engage in securities lending or repurchase transactions for the ILP sub-fund.

The definition of “Excluded Investment Product” can be found in Annex 1 to the Notice on Recommendations on Investment Products [Notice No. FAA-N16] at <https://www.mas.gov.sg/regulation/notices/notice-faa-n16>

characteristics of the Underlying Fund can be found in the Underlying Fund's relevant Appendix in Supplement V of the Luxembourg Prospectus. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Underlying Fund will not invest more than one-third of its assets in bonds issued by corporate or government entities, convertibles (securities that can be converted into other types of securities), money market instruments and non-share related instruments. The Underlying Fund may use derivatives for efficient Underlying Fund management purposes, to help manage risks and for investment purposes in order to seek to increase return.
Parties Involved
WHO ARE YOU INVESTING WITH? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Management Company is Goldman Sachs Asset Management B.V. The Investment Adviser is Goldman Sachs Asset Management International. The Depositary is State Street Bank International GmbH, Luxembourg Branch. 	Refer to the "The Fund", "Management" and "Other Parties" sections in Paragraphs 1, 3, 4 and 19.6 of the Singapore Prospectus for further information on the role and responsibilities of these entities and what happens if they become insolvent.
KEY RISKS
WHAT ARE THE KEY RISKS OF THIS INVESTMENT? The value of the ILP sub-fund may rise or fall. The following key risk factors may cause you to lose some or all of your investment:	Refer to paragraph 8 of the Underlying Fund's Prospectus for further information on risks.
Market and Credit Risks
You are exposed to market risk. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The value of assets in the Underlying Fund is typically dictated by a number of factors, including political, market and general economic conditions. Deterioration or uncertainty regarding any of these conditions may result in declines in the market values of actual or potential investments, and/or increased illiquidity of investments. You are exposed to exchange rate risk. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Changes in exchange rates may reduce or increase the returns an investor might expect to receive independent of the performance of such assets. If applicable, investment techniques used to attempt to reduce the risk of currency movements (hedging), may not be effective. Hedging also involves additional risks associated with derivatives. The Underlying Fund invests in stocks and other equity securities that historically have greater price volatility than bonds and other fixed income securities. This in turn may affect the value or volatility of the Underlying Fund. You are exposed to counterparty risk. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a party that the Underlying Fund transacts with may fail to meet its obligations which could cause losses.
Liquidity Risks
The ILP sub-fund is not listed on the Singapore Exchange and you can redeem only on Business Days through Singapore Life Ltd. In respect of Singapore investors, there is no secondary market for the ILP sub-fund.
Product-Specific Risks
You are exposed to equity risk. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Underlying Fund mostly invests in shares and similar instruments which typically experience higher levels of price fluctuations than fixed income securities. You are exposed to operational risk. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Material losses to the Underlying Fund may arise as a result of human error, system and/or process failures, inadequate procedures or controls.

You are exposed custodian risk.

• Insolvency, breaches of duty of care or misconduct of a custodian or sub-custodian responsible for the safekeeping of the Underlying fund's assets can result in loss to the Underlying Fund.

You are exposed to derivatives risk.

• Derivative instruments are highly sensitive to changes in the value of the underlying asset that they are based on. Certain derivatives may result in losses greater than the amount originally invested.

You are exposed to sustainability risk.

• An environmental, social or governance event or condition that could cause the value of the Underlying Fund to go down. Examples of sustainability risks include physical environmental risks, climate change transition risks, supply chain disruptions, improper labour practices, lack of board diversity and corruption.
