

SURRENDER/WITHDRAWAL FORM

Policy Number

IMPORTANT NOTICE

SECTION A: What you should know about early surrender of your insurance policy.

1. An insurance policy is intended to meet your long-term financial needs. Therefore, it may be disadvantageous for you to surrender a policy before its maturity date. Some disadvantages are:
  - You are losing valuable benefits from the policy:
    - You are losing the insurance protection offered by your policy;
    - You may not be able to achieve your intended financial objective;
    - This may result in losing the financial benefit accumulated over the years.
  - It may not be possible for you to obtain a similar level of protection on the same terms in the future.
    - You may not be insurable on standard terms;
    - You may have to pay a higher premium in view of higher age;
    - Withdrawing your insurance policy for another policy could result in loss of specific policy features due to changes in age or health.
2. Additional Charges/Fees
If you surrender your policy and then buy a new policy or other investment product, you will incur new charges. These may include:
  - Distribution Fee
Commission is paid to Agents/Financial Adviser Representatives on all new insurance policies / investment products.
  - Policy Fee
A policy fee is usually incurred for each policy.
3. Other Options
If your policy has acquired a cash value, you may choose to:
  - Apply for a cash loan to meet short term financial needs; or
  - Convert to a reduced sum assured policy at a lower premium; or
  - Convert to a Paid Up policy and stop paying future premiums; or
  - Reduce the policy regular premiums (applicable only to regular premiums policies).
4. Seeking Advice From Your Financial Adviser Representative
Therefore, it is important to seek advice from your Financial Adviser Representative before early surrender of your policy. Your Financial Adviser Representative can advise you on your options other than withdrawing the policy, explain the implications of each option and provide appropriate recommendations to you, taking into account your investment objectives, financial situation and particular needs.

Policy Owner/Trustee/Assignee/Beneficiary's Acknowledgement (This portion needs to be completed).
